

Dunraven Community Rules 2-18-2026

The use and enjoyment of the Common Area, Community Facilities, Lots, Living Units exteriors shall always be subject to reasonable rules and regulations as may be duly adopted by the Board from time to time.

To clarify some of the Rules and Regulations of our HOA and ARC Committee rules, the following document is being written in hopes of a better understanding of the HOA policies as an amendment to our covenants.

It will state and expand upon many of the items found in the covenant that we all agree to upon our purchase into the HOA (mainly Article VIII and X)

Common Area – All property within the subdivision that is owned, maintained, and controlled by the association

1. Clubhouse, pool area, pond and surrounding grounds.
2. All area under power lines.
3. Center sidewalk including 20 feet on each side of the sidewalk.
4. Paved and landscaped areas between garages.

Maintenance by Owners

The following is a list of items the homeowner is responsible for including maintenance, repair and replacement in accordance with Section 6.0.2 of our HOA Covenants.

- Exterior of Owner's Lot and Living Unit, to comply with the original design of the building and architectural standards.
- Driveways, entry walks and front stoops on Lots,
- Roofs
- Gutter and downspouts
- Soffit, fascia, trim and shutters

Flowers and Plants and other Decorative Items.

Homeowner plant containers, or other decorative items, are allowed with the following limitations:

- No permanent structure shall be built for use of containing flowers or vegetation within the original landscape design. Temporary containers are allowed in quantities and size such that they do not become a distraction. Means of support for items planted in the containers shall be of type and design that would be normal for such plantings. Use of "chicken wire" is not acceptable under any circumstance.
- Containers, pots and supports (tomato cages) are to be removed at the end of the growing season and stored in garage and not allowed to remain on the porch, patio, or viewing area of the building.
- All dead plants, trees and bushes must be removed. Replacing plants and trees in the original design is at the owner's expense. It must be replaced with something similar in size and style to the original bush, plant, or tree. Prior approval through the ARC committee is recommended to avoid replacement more than once

Outdoor Furniture and Equipment

All outdoor furniture including benches, tables, chairs, patio furniture and other similar furniture must be kept within the front porch, rear porch, or rear patio areas of each unit. Recreational equipment may not be stored outside of units or garage.

- Barbecue grills are only allowed on the rear patio area when not in use.
- It is important that porch and patio furniture be of substantial construction and in good taste. Folding lawn chairs are prohibited for use as "substantial" furniture to be used as part of the permanent arrangement.
- No awnings, canopies, shutters, antenna or satellite dishes or similar devices may be hung, affixed, or displayed on the exterior walls, doors, windows, patio, porches or roof of any unit without prior approval of the ARC Committee.

Units and Unit Exteriors

All new construction on Lots requires current and future building plans to be submitted to the ARC for confirmation so the building plans comply with the Association building plans of record, before commencing construction.

Exterior Items and Alterations

- All Exterior alterations must be submitted to the Architectural Review Committee for review and approval PRIOR to the beginning of work.
- Storm Doors: Storm doors may be added at the unit Owner's expense, and must be FULL GLASS in style and match the siding color. An example is, Larson "Tradewinds" full view, color sandstone at Lowes.

- Each Owner shall occupy and use his or her Living Unit as a private dwelling. Rental or leasing of the Living Units is prohibited, except as hereinafter provided.
- Existing rental units are grandfathered in as provided by the Fourth Amended Declaration.

Dunraven HOA Fine Schedule and Enforcement Procedures

Fines and Enforcement Policy

The Dunraven HOA Board has a duty to enforce the Rules, Regulations, and policies of the Association. Occasionally, the only practical tool for enforcement is a fine. The board is empowered by the Covenants to levy such a fine by Section 11.01 "Enforcement" of our covenants to take such action. A Schedule of Fines ensures that the Board can take action to bring Members in violation of the Association's rules into compliance and helps ensure the Board is not capricious or arbitrary in enforcing the Rules & Regulations and related policies.

The purpose of fines is to encourage compliance with our Covenants, Rules, Regulations, and policies. This schedule of fines serves to provide each Homeowner a clear understanding of the penalties involved for violations, and for failure to respond to notice of alleged violations.

Enforcement Procedure

First Violation:

- A courtesy call or email sent to the homeowner's phone number or email address on file citing the specific violation(s) and requesting correction of said violation(s) and requesting correction of said violation(s) within 24 hrs, unless otherwise noted.

Second Violation:

- A notice letter will be sent to the Homeowner stating the alleged violation and the amount of the fine to be imposed. If the violation is not corrected within the time prescribed, the applicable fine will be assessed and will continually be assessed until the violation is corrected.

Repeated Violations:

- In the case of repeating the same violation, fines may be doubled and/or assessed on a weekly basis until the same violation, fines may be doubled and/or assessed on a weekly basis until the violation is corrected.
